

Still

Baby I know I never had you, but I want you back.
Baby I know it's been a while, but I still feel your breath on my neck.
Yes I know it's too late, but for God's sake,
Maybe we're just right to try another mistake.

Cause baby the truth is I still think about you
Baby the truth is I still think about you
Baby the truth is I still think about you
Baby the truth is I still think about, I think about you.
Think about you.

Yes I know, there are a million reasons why we aren't a thing,
But why is it still you that I'm thinking of during all these love songs that I sing.
Yes I know I just pretend to be cool, there's no reason I couldn't be
But I'd be kind of pissed, if I'd see you with someone else.

Cause baby the truth is I still think about you
Baby the truth is I still think about you
Baby the truth is I still think about you
Baby the truth is I still think about, I think about

There are too many people in this whole wide world
Waiting for each other's call.
So if you hear this song and feel quite the same,
Just know I'm sitting right next to my phone.

Cause baby the truth is I still think about you
Baby the truth is I still think about you
Baby the truth is I still think about you
Baby the truth is I still think about, I think about you.
I think about you, you, you, oh.
I think about you.
You're smile it tells me,
You think about me too.
